

I like not getting telemarketing phone calls all hours of the night. If the law changed, I think the telemarketer companies should get everyones phone number who helped changed the law in favor of the telemarketer companies and call them instead of everyone who hates their calls. The law is great for the quiet evenings we are all ENJOYING from no annoying phone calls.